Welcome

Ratification of last month's minutes – Melissa will get those out.

Identify someone to take minutes – Rebecca K. will, for the meetings she attends.

Board Member News:

Karen McCoy was elected to be a National Delegate for the Democratic Party and will be attending the National Democratic Convention in Charlotte, NC

Linda Dunlevy just received “Recorder of the Year” Award

Budget Brief:

Mike Shelton said that every year the Arts Council will receive 10,000.00 from the City.

Melissa Lowry proposed that of that money, 2500.00 be put toward the play of the upcoming year. Karen McCoy seconded the motion and all were in favor.

Melissa applied for and received a 500.00 grant from Walmart for the Arts Council.

Updates from City:

Ann – Saturday 10- 12 there will be a Preparedness Fair at MillHollow Park. Please attend.

Mike- He will present the member participation guidelines to the City on Tuesday for a vote.

Linda – Each council member's term is set for 3 years. The following members terms are up on June 1st: Becky Henricksen, Suzanne Neddo, Bob Ithuralde and Karen McCoy.

They all would like to remain on the council for another 3 years.

Event Updates:

Karen: Photo Contest – She was very pleased with the event. At least 30 people attended the closing night. Many from the arts council were there to add their support. There were 26 entries for the contest.

The youth winner received a 50.00 check. One of the men who entered and won a prize was encouraged to enter his entry into the State Fair. Ben Harvey – youth category- won 2 awards.

A special guest and judge, Mylo Fowler, did a fantastic job giving a photo presentation to the participants on closing night.

The winning selections can be viewed on the City's facebook website.

Becky K : Cinderella – We have an orchestra. We will be off script on June 26th. The actors voices sound superb. The rehearsals are progressing steadily.
Bob said we can use the 38” clock in the city office for the clock in the Cinderella Set.

Rod: Butlerville Days – Entertainment – There is a problem getting Slaymaker Hill. They want 1000.00 to perform. The Council voted on a back up plan to provide 500.00 for the band. Brian Allen will talk to Larry, who is in charge of Butlerville Days about getting the funds.

Next Meeting: August 8, 2012 at 5:30
