1.3 Councilman Bracken introduced Youth City Council Representative Jake Hanson

2.0 REPORTS/PROCLAMATIONS/RECOGNITIONS
2.1 Recognition of Glenn and Kara Clapp for K9 Donation

Police Chief, Robby Russo, stated that the K9 program is an expensive program to run. He believes that Cottonwood Heights has one of the best programs in the valley and pointed out that costs can’t always be funded with taxpayer money. He stated that the Clapp’s previously made a donation that helped the Police Department obtain one of their K9’s who is now ready for retirement and that the Clapp’s have again generously offered to make a donation to the City allowing for a new dog. He introduced Glenn and Kara Clapp.

Mr. Clapp stated that he and his wife are now residents of Cottonwood Heights. They love dogs and are glad to be able to help out.

Mayor Cullimore expressed gratitude to the Clapp’s for their generosity and tremendous contribution to the City.

2.2 Proclamation Declaring June 30-July 6, 2014 as “Independents Week”

Mayor Cullimore read a proclamation in support of local first Utah’s Independents Week. The proclamation salutes community members and locally-owned independent businesses that are integral to the unique flavor of Cottonwood Heights. He stated that the City always encourages citizens to patronize local businesses whenever possible. He expressed appreciation to all local businesses.

3.0 CITIZEN COMMENTS
3.1.1 Jill McGee expressed concerns about the proposed attached housing development on Wasatch Boulevard named Giverny and described in her opinion possible ramifications. She expressed that she is concerned that it could open up the potential of the properties to become ski rental units.

3.1.3 Gary McGee asked if notices for meeting agendas could be posted earlier rather than the day before the meeting. He believes that there is not a consistent posting of current events and upcoming meetings on the city’s website calendar.

3.1.4 Mayor Cullimore agreed to have that reviewed and updated, but said the agendas are difficult to put out more than a day or so ahead if we want to be timely on city business.

3.1.5 David Ekins was present on behalf of the Old Coventry annexation petitioners and conveyed his appreciation for the support of the City.

3.1.6 Gary McGee shared concern with the approval of the Murray Park and Ride and asked for clarification regarding parking.

3.1.7 Mayor Cullimore explained where the Park and Ride would be and how it would be developed.

2.3 Standing Monthly/Quarterly Reports

2.4 Monthly Financial Report

Finance Director, Steve Fawcett, presented the monthly financial report for May. He reported that revenues are as budgeted and property taxes are nearly 100% collected. Sales tax exceeds projection by approximately 3% with an estimated total of $5,110,000. Building permits are also above projection. Fines and forfeitures are expected to come in close to budget. Mr. Fawcett does not expect any department to end the fiscal year over budget. A slight increase in the fund balance is projected.

2.5 Unified Fire Report

Assistant Fire Chief, Mike Watson, presented the Unified Fire Report for the month of May. He stated that in terms of call volume Station 110 came in 4th and Station 116 came in 19th overall among all UFA stations.
