WORK SESSION

In the absence of Mayor Kelvyn Cullmore and Mayor Pro Tempore, Scott Bracken, Councilman Mike Peterson called meeting to order.

1.0 Emergency Management Update.

1.1 Emergency Manager, Mike Halligan, reported on the Flooding Plan and Earthquake Preparedness efforts. He stated that in the event there is flooding and a call for help goes out, volunteers are asked to report to two specified command locations where supplies and direction will be provided. This type of direction will help keep people safe. Mr. Halligan indicated that there has been a flyer that has gone out to the public identifying meeting locations. He noted that at this point, the weather has been beneficial to keep flooding at bay.

1.2 Mr. Halligan reported that following the last two Community Emergency Management Meetings, it was determined that the teams are ready for floods. If more than two command center locations are needed, more will be added. There is a minor concern with Big Cottonwood Creek, but both the County and City are monitoring the situation. There are 20,000 sand bags available for use, a portion of which are being filled now with more available to be filled as necessary. Additional sand bags can be requested from other agencies as needed. Because the bags are biodegradable and deteriorate quickly once they are exposed to the sun, they do not want to fill them too soon. Mr. Halligan was watching the weather forecast and if flooding events occurs, they will be ready to go. The Utah Great Shake Out, the annual earthquake preparedness event, is coming up and the City will be participating in the event.

2.0 Public Relations Report.

2.1 Public Relations Specialist, Dan Metcalf, informed the City Council of the following recent events:
   - Fox 13 News - High speed chase through the Salt Lake Valley
- KSL 5 - Human remains found in Death Smith Canyon by two hikers. Investigators are looking for the identification of skeletal remains.
- Newsletter has been finalized and will be sent to the Mayor and City Council for proof reading.
- Website is being updated with recent events.
- Mr. Metcalf will be presenting at the Utah Municipal Clerks Association Meeting. His presentation will focus on social media and the importance of following policy regarding social media.
