5. Update on Events

a. Musical update

- Marketing for musical
 - Shirt: We will let the cast and orchestra vote and decide.
 - Will explore the vase for a sticker or other promotional items.
 - Marketing is under way.
 - GotPrint will make the postcards.
 - A local printer will create posters, 20 yard signs (distributed among Arts Council members and potentially cast members who live on busy roads), and fence banners.
 - We will order 700 playbills.
 - To make yard signs, we approve Laura G. to move money around.
 - Looking for signs for wheelchair identification..
 - Kate has created surveys and would like to use the Arts Council to test the experience.
 - Orchestra is practicing in the theater. Sound system in place. Set pieces are rough, but coming together. Cast is progressing.
 - Arts Council would be welcome to come help paint 10-3 on June 8 and June 15.

b. September Master Class

- References for pen & ink artists

- David Habben

c. Update on Other Upcoming events

- We will discuss Bark in the Park August 6
- Laura G. will explore David Habben for pen and ink activity
- Christmas: If we want to book a concert artist, we need to do that soon. We will workshop that via email.

6. Event Proposal: Curbside Theater by SB Dance and SALT Contemporary Dance

- SALT would like to create a customizable dance for us.
 - Would involve audience participation with it.
 - Looking at March 29.
 - Cost is about $4000 for the company; we would also need to pay for the school and the lighting and tech (probably $5000-$5500).
 - Motion approved to look into it further. We will bring it back to August meeting.

7. Misc. Topics

a. Mountview wall update

- Whitney is working on it!

b. Electrical box update

- Brighton High Alumni committee will take on the three boxes on Brighton High Campus.
- We are exploring the remaining box with an artist who is bright and bold-Gailon Justus.
